

Bhutan Land Cost

BHU001 3N/4D Dragon Kingdom Tour

Day 1 BANGKOK-PARO (L, D)

Arrive in Bhutan and transfer to hotel in Paro. The flight to Bhutan is spectacular with the great Himalayan peak appearing on and after the others on the life side.

Visit the Ta-Dzong built in the 17th century, as watchtower to defend Rinpung Dzong below. This Dzong was later converted into the National Museum in 1967, and is filled with antique Tanka paintings, textiles, weapons and armour. Drive to the Rinpung Dzong, built in 17th century to defend the valley against the Tibetan invaders. The Dzong is now used as an administrative center and school for monks. Overnight in Paro

Day 2 PARO-THIMPHU (B, L, D)

Visit Drukgyel Dzong, which was built by Shabdrung in 1647, to commemorate his history over the Tibetans in 1644. Behind the Fort if weather is clear, you can view the looming majestic peak of Mt. Jhomolhari (7314 Metres).

Along the way see Kyichu Lhakhang, one of the 108 temples built in the Himalayas by Tibetan King, Songtsen Gampo.

Afternoon drive to Thimphu (65kms / 2.30 hours).

Day 3 THIMPHU-PARO (B, L, D)

Visit the National Memorial Chorten built in honour of the late King Jigme Dorji Wangchuk and the Dupthop Lhakhang one of the few surviving nunneries in Bhutan. Then visit the National Library, stocked with Manuscripts painting school at this school learn the traditional techniques of drawing and painting.

After lunch drive to the Traditional Medicine Hospital where traditional medicines are prepared according to the ancient practices. Other highlights include a visit to the Tashichho Dzong, seat of the national government and the Central Monastic body, including the summer residence of the Je Khenpo (chief abbot of Bhutan) Finally visit Handicrafts Emporium and observed traditional gold and silver smiths at work. In the evening drive to Paro.

Day 4 PARO-BANGKOK (B)

Depart from Paro to Bangkok.

BHU001 / 3N4D / QUOTATION IN THB / 01 July – 31 Aug 10

1 Pax	2 Pax	3 Pax up
		Twin sharing room	Single Room
44,500	43,500	41,500	44,500

*rate can change without notice, upon air fare and currency rate exchange.

- Rates are per person in Thai Baht on twin sharing basis (1 person rate is for 1 person staying in single room)

- Group and Child rate, pls check again

Including:

1. Accommodation on twin sharing basis
2. Tax Ticket 3000 THB
3. Meals (3B, 3L, 3D)
4. Sightseeing & entrance fees to places as indicated
5. Ground transports as indicated
6. English Speaking Guide (other language pls check)
7. Int'l Air Ticket Bangkok-Paro-Bangkok by Druk Air economy class
8. Visa Bhutan 20 USD

Excluding:

1. Personal expenses i.e tabled drinks
2. Expenses occurred due to unavoidable events i.e road wrecks, flight delays cancelled

Hotel

THIMPHU: Raven Inn Hotel

PARO: Holiday Home Hotel

Bhutan Land Cost

BHU002 4N/5D Bhutan Splendid

Day 1 BANGKOK-PARO (L,D)

Arrive in Bhutan and transfer to hotel in Paro. The flight to Bhutan is spectacular with the great Himalayan peak appearing on and after the others on the life side.

Visit the Ta-Dzong built in the 17th century, as watchtower to defend Rinpung Dzong below. This Dzong was later converted into the National Museum in 1967, and is filled with antique Tanka paintings, textiles, weapons and armour. Drive to the Rinpung Dzong, built in 17th century to defend the valley against the Tibetan invaders. The Dzong is now used as an administrative center and school for monks. Overnight in Paro.

Day 2 PARO-THIMPHU (B, L, D)

Visit Drukgyel Dzong, which was built by Shabdrung in 1647, to commemorate his history over the Tibetans in 1644. Along the way see Kyichu Lhakhang, one of the 108 temples built in the Himalayas by Tibetan King, Songtsen Gampo.

Afternoon drive to Thimphu (65kms/2.30 hours) visit to the Tashichho Dzong, seat of the national government and the Central Monastic body, includes the summer residence.

Overnight in Thimphu.

Day 3 THIMPHU-PUNAKHA (B, L, D)

Visit the National Memorial Chorten built in honour of the late King Jigme Dorji Wangchuk and the Dupthop Lhakhang one of the few surviving nunneries in Bhutan. Then visit the National Library, stocked with Manuscripts, painting school at this school learn the traditional techniques of drawing and painting, Traditional Medicine Hospital where traditional medicines are prepared according to the ancient practices.

After lunch drive to Punakha via Duchula pass (altitude 3050 metres). From here on a clear day one can see superb view of the highest peaks in Bhutan, such as Gangkar Puensum, Table Mountain, Jeje Khang, Masakhang and Gangchey Ta. Drive on to Punakha, which is the old capital of Bhutan and the present winter capital for Central Monks. Visit the Punakha Dzong (opened when the monks are in Thimphu).

Day 4 PUNAKHA-THIMPHU-PARO (B, L, D)

Early morning leave from Punakha to Thimphu. When you arrive visit Changangkha Lhakhang. The temple built in 15th Century. After lunch free for shopping and drive back to Paro.

Day 5 PARO-BANGKOK (B)

Transfer to airport for flight back to BKK

BHU002 / 4N5D / QUOTATION IN THB / 01 July – 31 Aug 10

1 Pax	2 Pax	3 Pax up
		Twin sharing room	Single Room
51,500	50,000	47,500	51,000

*rate can change without notice, upon air fare and currency rate exchange.

- Rates are per person in Thai Baht on twin sharing basis (1 person rate is for 1 person staying in single room)

- Group and Child rate, pls check again

Including:

1. Accommodation on twin sharing basis
2. Tax Ticket 3000 THB
3. Meals (4B, 4L, 4D)
4. Sightseeing & entrance fees to places as indicated
5. Ground transports as indicated
6. English Speaking Guide (other language pls check)
7. Int'l Air Ticket Bangkok-Paro-Bangkok by Druk Air economy class
8. Visa Bhutan 20 USD

Excluding:

1. Personal expenses i.e tabled drinks
2. Expenses occurred due to unavoidable events i.e road wrecks, flight delays cancelled

Hotel

THIMPHU: Raven Inn Hotel

PARO: Holiday home Hotel

PUNAKHA: Zangtho Pelri, Y.T. Guest House

Bhutan Land Cost

BHU003 6N/7D Magical

Day 1 BANGKOK-PARO (L,D)

Arrive in Bhutan and transfer to hotel in Paro. The flight to Bhutan is spectacular with the great Himalayan peak appearing on and after the others on the life side.

Visit the Ta-Dzong built in the 17th century, as watchtower to defend Rinpung Dzong below. This Dzong was later converted into the National Museum in 1967, and is filled with antique Tanka paintings, textiles, weapons and armour. Drive to the Rinpung Dzong, built in 17th century to defend the valley against the Tibetan invaders. The Dzong is now used as an administrative center and school for monks. Overnight in Paro.

Day 2 PARO-THIMPHU (B, L, D)

Visit Drukgyel Dzong, which was built by Shabdrung in 1647, to commemorate his history over the Tibetans in 1644. Along the way see Kyichu Lhakhang, one of the 108 temples built in the Himalayas by Tibetan King, Songtsen Gampo.

Afternoon drive to Thimphu (65kms/2.30 hours) visit to the Tashichho Dzong, seat of the national government and the Central Monastic body, includes the summer residence. Overnight in Thimphu.

DAY 3 THIMPHU-PUNAKHA (B, L, D)

Drive to Punakha via Duchula pass (altitude 3050 meters). From here on a clear day one can see superb view of the highest peaks in Bhutan, such as Gangkar Puensum, Table Mountain, Jeje Khang, Masakhang and Gangchey Ta.

After lunch drive on to Punakha which the old capital of Bhutan and the present winter capital for Central Monks. Visit the Punakha Dzong (opened when the monks are in Thimphu).

Day 4 PUNAKHA-TONGSA (B, L, D)

Drive to Tongsa around 6 hours through a forest of pine and cedar. The road climbs to Pelela Pass, traditionally considered the boundary between west and east of Bhutan. Arrive in Tongsa.

View the impressive Tongsa Dzong, built in 1648, the ancestral home of the ruling dynasty. The Dzong is a massive structure with many levels which slope down the contours of a hill on which it perches and visit Ta Dzong, an ancient watch-tower. Above the main Dzong, there is an interesting display of Mongol armour.

Day 5 TONGSA-WANGDIPHODRANG-THIMPHU (B, L, D)

Drive to Thimphu via the valley of Wangdiphodrang. Visit Wangdi Dzong.

After lunch drive to Thimphu.

Day 6 THIMPHU-PARO (B, L, D)

Visit the National Memorial Chorten built in honour of the late King Jigme Dorji Wangchuk and the Dupthop Lhakhang one of the few surviving nunneries in Bhutan. Then visit the National Library, stocked with Manuscripts painting, traditional medicines are prepared according to the ancient practices.

After lunch drive to Paro. Free at leisure in Paro.

Day 7 PARO-BANGKOK (B)

Transfer to airport for flight back to BKK

BHU003 / 6N7D / QUOTATION IN THB / 01 July – 31 Aug 10

1 Pax	2 Pax	3 Pax up
		Twin sharing room	Single Room
64,500	62,500	58,500	63,500

*rate can change without notice, upon air fare and currency rate exchange.

- Rates are per person in Thai Baht on twin sharing basis (1 person rate is for 1 person staying in single room)

- Group and Child rate, pls check again

Bhutan Land Cost

Including:

1. Accommodation on twin sharing basis
2. Tax Ticket 3000 THB
3. Meals (6B, 6L, 6D)
4. Sightseeing & entrance fees to places as indicated
5. Ground transports as indicated
6. English Speaking Guide (other language pls check)
7. Int'l Air Ticket Bangkok-Paro-Bangkok by Druk Air economy class
8. Visa Bhutan 20 USD

Excluding:

1. Personal expenses i.e tabled drinks
2. Expenses occurred due to unavoidable events i.e road wrecks, flight delays cancelled

Hotel

THIMPHU: Raven Inn

PUNAKHA: Zangtho Pelri, Y.T.Guest House

PARO: Holiday Home Hotel

TONGSA: Sherubling or Norling Lodge

Bhutan Land Cost

BHU004

8N / 9D East Bhutan

Day 1

BANGKOK-PARO (L,D)

Arrive in Bhutan and transfer to hotel in Paro. The flight to Bhutan is spectacular with the great Himalayan peak appearing on and after the others on the life side.

Visit the Ta-Dzong built in the 17th century, as watchtower to defend Rinpung Dzong below. This Dzong was later converted into the National Museum in 1967, and is filled with antique Tanka paintings, textiles, weapons and armour. Drive to the Rinpung Dzong, built in 17th century to defend the valley against the Tibetan invaders. The Dzong is now used as an administrative center and school for monks. Overnight in Paro.

Day 2

PARO-THIMPHU (B, L, D)

Visit Drukgyel Dzong, which was built by Shabdrung in 1647, to commemorate his history over the Tibetans in 1644. Along the way see Kyichu Lhakhang, one of the 108 temples built in the Himalayas by Tibetan King, Songtsen Gampo.

Afternoon drive to Thimphu (65kms/2.30 hours) visit to the Tashichho Dzong, seat of the national government and the Central Monastic body, includes the summer residence. Overnight in Thimphu.

Day 3

THIMPHU-PUNAKHA (B, L, D)

Visit the National Memorial Chorten built in honour of the late King Jigme Dorji Wangchuk and the Dupthop Lhakhang one of the few surviving nunneries in Bhutan. Then visit the National Library, stocked with Manuscripts, painting school at the school learn the traditional techniques of drawing and painting, Traditional Medicine Hospital where traditional medicines are prepared according to the ancient practices.

After lunch drive to Punakha via Duchula pass (altitude 3050 metres). From here on a clear day one can see superb view of the highest peaks in Bhutan, such as Gangkar Puensum, Table Mountain, Jeje Khang, Masakhang and Gangchey Ta.

Day 4

PUNAKHA-TONGSA (B, L, D)

Punakha, the old capital of Bhutan and the present winter capital for Central Monks. Visit the Punakha Dzong (opened when the monks are in Thimphu). Drive to Tongsa around 6 hours through a forest of pine and cedar. The road climbs to Pelela Pass, traditionally considered the boundary between West and East of Bhutan.

After lunch drive to Tongsa.

Day 5

TONGSA-BUMTHANG (B, L, D)

View the impressive Tongsa Dzong, built in 1648, the ancestral home of the ruling dynasty. The Dzong is a massive structure with many levels, which slope down the contours of a hill on which it perches and visit Ta Dzong, an ancient watch – tower. Above the main Dzong, there is an interesting display of Mongol Armour.

After lunch drive about 3 hours and cross the Yotonglay Pass to Bumthang.

Day 6

BUMTHANG (B, L, D)

Bumthang is the general name given to a complex of four valleys-Chumey, Choekhor, Tang and Ura with altitude vary from 2,600 to 4,000 meters. Visit to Kurje Lhakhang, one of the most sacred places in Bhutan as Guru Rimpoche mediated here. From Kurje monastery a tarmac road heads south along the right bank of the river to the Jambey Lhakhang.

Afternoon visit Tamshing Lhakhang, founded in 1501 by Pema Lingpa. Later see Jakar Dzong, the “Dzong of the white bird”. It is the only Dzong in the country that does not contain a Drukpa monastic community.

Day 7

BUMTHANG-WANGDIPRODHANG (B, L, D)

Drive to Wangdiphodrang.

Day 8

WANGDIPRODHANG-PARO (B, L, D)

Visit Wangdi Dzong. Then drive to Paro.

Day 9

PARO-BANGKOK (B)

Transfer to airport for flight back to BKK

BHU004 / 8N9D / QUOTATION IN THB / 01 July – 31 Aug 10

1 Pax	2 Pax	3 Pax up
		Twin sharing room	Single Room
77,500	75,000	70,000	77,000

*rate can change without notice, upon air fare and currency rate exchange.

- Rates are per person in Thai Baht on twin sharing basis (1 person rate is for 1 person staying in single room)

- Group and Child rate, pls check again

Bhutan Land Cost

Including:

1. Accommodation on twin sharing basis
2. Tax Ticket 3000 THB
3. Meals (6B, 6L, 6D)
4. Sightseeing & entrance fees to places as indicated
5. Ground transports as indicated
6. English Speaking Guide (other language pls check)
7. Int'l Air Ticket Bangkok-Paro-Bangkok by Druk Air economy class
8. Visa Bhutan 20 USD

Excluding:

1. Personal expenses i.e tabled drinks
2. Expenses occurred due to unavoidable events i.e road wrecks, flight delays cancelled

Hotel

THIMPHU: Raven Inn Hotel

PUNAKHA: Zangtho Pelri, Y.T.Guest House

BUMTANG: Wangdichholing, Mountain Lodge

PARO: Holiday Home Hotel

TONGSA: Sherubling or Norling Lodge

IMPORTANT NOTES

- * Paro Museum is closed on every Monday
- * Taksang Monastery was under construction
- * Visa process required at least 7 working days
- * Deposit required before making a tours booking
- * Hotel. There are no hotel stars systems in Bhutan. They are considered to be same standard and equal. We however choose the most suitable hotel considering its standard and service.

DISTANCE

FROM	TO	DISTANCE TIME	FROM	TO	DISTANCE TIME
Thimphu	Paro	2.5 hours	Punakha	Wangdiphodrang	40 mins
Thimphu	Wangdiphodrang	3 hours	Wandiphodrang	Tongsa	5 hours
Thimphu	Punakha	3 hours	Tongsa	Bumtang	3 hours

CANCELLATION

Tour Programs booked and subsequently cancelled shall be subject cancellation charges as follows: -

- A. Within 30 days of the start of the tour programme: Free
- B. Within 21 days: 10% of the rate.
- C. Within 14 days: 15% of the rate.
- D. Within 7 days: 30% of the rate.
- E. Less than 7 days or cancellation without notice: 50% of the rate.
- F. No Show: 100%